UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: United States v. Kyle Weiland
18-cr-00273 (LGS)
VOSR Proceedings

Dear Judge Schofield:

This office has been retained to represent Kyle Weiland in the above-referenced matter. Per the Court's Order dated July 12, 2023, the Government and the defense are submitting this status letter as a status update regarding the above-referenced supervised release proceeding.

As the Court is aware, Mr. Weiland has been charged in the US District Court for the Southern District of New York in White Plains in a Complaint charging him with possession with intent to distribute fentanyl. See generally United States v. Kyle Weiland, 23-mj-05224. The Government is represented by A.U.S.A. Shaun Werbelow in that matter, and he is copied on this letter.

The preliminary hearing date in the White Plains case is currently scheduled for May 8, 2024. However, a preliminary hearing is unlikely to proceed on that date, as we have been discussing a potential pre-indictment resolution of that matter with A.U.S.A. Werbelow. We anticipate that a plea proceeding will be scheduled in May or June 2024. Moreover, it is anticipated that the parties will reach a resolution with regard to the present VOSR proceedings as well.

With regard to the present proceedings before Your Honor, the parties here have conferred and agree that, given the factual and legal overlap between the instant supervised release specifications and the standalone criminal case in White Plains, these supervised release proceedings should be delayed in favor of the criminal case. As such, per the previous application to this Court, the parties propose updating the Court in another 60 days (July 5, 2024) on the status of the White Plains criminal case, or earlier if that case proceeds to a pre-trial disposition.

Thank you in advance for your review and consideration in this matter.
